Are you a confident and pro-active individual with a passion for supporting young people to achieve, socially, academically and emotionally? Do you want to make a real difference to the lives of young people? Are you seeking a pathway to a teaching career or wishing to gain valuable classroom experience in a successful secondary school?

We require an enthusiastic Cover Supervisor to play a crucial role in supporting teaching and learning during the short-term absence of teaching staff. You will work with classes across the curriculum ensuring all students understand and complete the work set by teaching staff. You will motivate students to remain on task and maintain their behaviour in accordance with school procedures. In addition, you may provide administrative support, undertake duties and accompany students on external visits and invigilate for exams.

This post is ideally suited if you are an aspiring teacher or looking to gain valuable experience in a successful secondary school or education setting. Experience of working with young people would be an advantage although training and induction will be provided. This post brings an opportunity for a senior position subject to relevant experience.

Ideal candidates will possess a positive and resilient attitude and a calm and flexible approach, you will be self-motivated and able to work with minimum supervision. You will also have excellent communication, be personable and have the ability to manage student behaviour in addition to being open and adaptable to new learning and ideas. All staff are expected to promote the safety and welfare of students in accordance with the Trust's policies.

This is a varied and exciting opportunity to support young people, and to work with a great team in a collaborative school. If you think you possess the qualities and experience we are looking for, we would very much like to hear from you.

*Visits to the school are warmly welcomed and encouraged.
